

Approach to dermatological patient

Friday 23 and Saturday 24 February 2024,
Skopje, North Macedonia

Skopje Marriott Hotel

Speakers

Dr Svetlina Aleksandrova DipIECVD

Dr Jevgenija Kondratjeva DipIECVD

Local Organiser

Ss Cyril and Methodius University in Skopje

Faculty of veterinary medicine-Skopje

In collaboration with Partners in Congress Organisation (PCO)

Objectives

The objective of the conference is bringing local practitioners interested in veterinary dermatology, in contact with the ESVD Society and to attract them to the Vet Derm Society and to participate in the 35nd European Veterinary Dermatology Congress, organized by ESVD-ECVD in Bilbao, Spain.

This congress should be an "appetizer" and should offer a friendly scientific atmosphere. Participants will be supported to apply for the ESVD Travel Grant for the European congress.

Dermatologists and ESVD Board members will present their diagnostic and therapeutic approaches to the common problems in veterinary dermatology. Speakers will discuss these approaches interactively with the participants.

One of the main aims, beside of a great clinical/scientific experience, will be spreading the friendly spirit of the European Society of Veterinary Dermatology.

Translation to Macedonian will be provided.
