Public Transport:

Public Transport in Budapest covers the city well by buses, trams, trolleybuses, metro and suburban railway trains. You can also travel with public bike-sharing service MOL Bubi, taxi or special transport services like the Funicular, Chairlift, or boat.

Night transport services are available in the night hours, they are different from the daytime operation. Trams run throughout the night on the Grand Boulevard, beyond that night buses are on service. Their numbers always start with 9, and their network covers the entire capital.

Tickets and passes can be purchased in cash or by bankcard from ticket vending machines (TVM) found at Budapest's busy transport hubs and stops.

You can also purchase your tickets and passes via Budapest Go App.
